“An education isn't how much you have committed to memory, or even how much you know. It's being able to differentiate between what you know and what you don't.”

MISCA Madness

By: Yolanda Marti

Wow the swim season has gone by so quickly. January 20 and 21 was the league meets for divers and swimmers. Everyone from Holt did very well and some of the team even got medals.

Coach Kim said the following:

“What a fantastic league meet! Both the girls' and boys' teams finished 3rd overall out of 9 teams. All swimmers swam their hardest and dropped time. I was so proud to be the HJH swim coach yesterday! Diving also went really well on Friday night, with three of our divers placing in the top 10: Beth Rosenbaum at 9th place, Katie Morris 6th place, and Brooke Hosfield took first!

Great work, divers, and many thanks to this year's new diving coach Katrina Schlicker.

She's done fantastic work!”
The league meets are one of the most important meets of the season, and help determine who will go to the biggest meet of all, the MISCA swim/dive meet. Several of swimmers and divers will be competing at the MISCA meet, including divers Brook Hosfield, Beth Rosenbaum, and Katie Morris, and swimmers

College Football Wrap-Up

By: Viet Phan

Now that bowl season is over, it's about the time for a college football wrap-up. As always, this year was dominated by the SEC, with Alabama and LSU as the top two teams in the nation. And following closely behind them are Oklahoma State, Oregon, and Arkansas.

This year was full of surprising upsets though as well as record breaking moments, like Iowa State upsetting Oklahoma State or the record setting Alamo Bowl with Baylor and Washington combining for 123 points and 1,397 yards of total offense.

There was also of course, Rocket, the play that won it against Wisconsin. The Hail Mary from Kirk Cousins to Keith Nichol at the end of regulation to win it and hand Wisconsin their only loss of the regular season. And finally, there was the most lopsided BCS national championship in a long time with Alabama shutting out

LSU 21-0.

But this year was also the year of the allegations, the year of the suspension, and the end of an era at Penn State as Joe Paterno, their beloved 85 year old head coach, was fired as a result of the Jerry Sandusky incident(s). But Penn State will have a lot of help from former Patriots offensive coordinator Bill O' Brian and Joe Pa's son, Jay Paterno.

David Hefty, Brian Moore, Levi Petersen, Viet Phan, William Kirkonnell, Kade Brickey, Payton Thurman, Alexis Lefevre, Kelsey Marsh, Jessica Cleary, Kyndall Lo Vette, Rachel Lees, and Hannah Whiteman. Everyone on the team is really excited for the meet even if they are not competing. It is a very fun event to watch. Some of the best of the best out of the whole league come, it is a real treat. The MISCA meet will be held Saturday January 28, at the Holt High School.

College Football Wrap-Up

Finally Michigan State won a bowl game. Facing their opposition from five years ago, MSU won the Outback Bowl against a tough Georgia team that had totally dominated the first half, and then sat in the back seat while MSU took the spotlight. The game went into three overtimes and when Anthony Rashad-White blocked the Georgia field goal, it was all over for Georgia and the end of a five consecutive bowl losing streak in the Dantonio era.
